

Ka Hao Ngātahi

nā Ben Ngaia raua ko Rangi Halbert

(Verse)

Whakarongo ki ngā auē o Tama Kōrero
Ko Hine Waiata e karanga atu nei aue
Whakatika kāinga tahi
Kia ora kāinga rua
Ka hao ngātahi te ruha
Me te rangatahi

(Bridge)

He tamaroto e ako ana i te kāinga
He tamawaho e tau ana i te marae e

(Chorus)

Whakaāniwaniwa te ihi
O te hunga taitamariki
Ka hao ngātahi te ruha
Me te rangatahi

(Repeat bridge and chorus)

Rangatahi – hi!

Listen to the cries of our young men
And our young women who call out to you all
Our parents' teachings must be firmly established
In order for the next generation to flourish
Therefore the old and young
Must walk together

(Bridge)

Teach us well in the home to be understanding and compassionate of one self Teach us well in the community, to be understanding and compassionate of others

(Chorus)

May the pride permeate brilliantly above
Of the upcoming generations
So that the old and young
Walk together
